AWARD CELEBRATION

TO BOB AND DOREEN HENDERSON OF WHOAS

MARCH 21, 2009

OLDS AND DISTRICT EVERGREEN CENTRE

5237 — 52 ST. OLDS, AB AT 3:00 PM

Bob and Doreen Henderson of WHOAS are receiving the WILDLIFE PROTECTION AWARD.

IFAW - The International Fund for Animal Welfare conducted a nation wide search for individuals dedicated to doing amazing things for animals. Each year worthy individuals are selected to receive the Wildlife Protection Award. For all of Bob and Doreen's incredible dedication, work and passion for the welfare of Alberta's wild horses they will receive this award under the 2008 ANIMAL ACTION AWARD category.

Olivier Bonnet, Country Director, IFAW Canada will be presenting Bob and Doreen with this well deserved award on March 21, 2009 at the Evergreen Centre, 5237-52 St. Olds, AB at 3:00 p.m. Followed by speaker Dr. Claudia Notzke The Fight to Save a Memory: Wild Horse Research, Controversies and Opportunities. A silent auction and refreshments to follow. Bob and Doreen would love to have you help celebrate this award, as it is dedicated to all those involved with WHOAS. Please RSVP by March 14th to WHOAS, Box 70022, Olds, AB T4H 0A3 or phone (403) 556-6167.
